

Carrier Announcements

Jump to The Latest Announcement.

UPS Surepost Rate increase

UPS Surepost Rate increase

UPS announced a Surepost Rate increase, effective December 26th. Notable is that UPS did NOT announce a Ground "Delivery and Returns" Surcharge in contrast to FedEx, while adding a large DAS of about 40% from 2021 rates. Read more here.

UPS announced that Peak Surcharges (unrelated to Holiday Season shipping) would be reinstated effective January 16, 2022 with no expiration date. Click for further information on the UPS website.

12.08.21

12.21.21

UPS Surcharge Announcement

An increase in fuel surcharges will go into effect on January 3, 2022. The increase will apply to Domestic Ground and Air shipments. Note that the International fuel surcharge is unaffected at this time. Click for further information on the UPS website.

12.21.21

UPS Announces Peak Surcharge between U.S. and Canada

Effective January 16, 2022, UPS will implement peak surcharges of $0.30 USD per package on UPS Standard to the U.S. from Canada and $0.42 CAD per package on Trade Direct Shipments from the U.S. to Canada. Read more here.

01.06.22

UPS Peak Season Increase

Effective January 30, UPS is lowering Peak/ Demand Surcharges for US imports from the China/ Hong Kong/ APAC region and increasing its surcharges on imports from India. Read more here.

01.28.22